Michael R. Rozovics
Receives Top Award at Genworth Financial Investment Services National Convention

Schaumburg, IL – July, 2007 – Registered Representative/Investment Adviser Representative, Michael R. Rozovics, based in Park Ridge, Illinois, was recognized as a professional whose commitment to financial services and expertise in providing client solutions has placed him among the top of his peers. Michael R. Rozovics' practice includes approximately 650 total clients, $35,000,000 in assets and focuses on assisting clients in developing broad-based financial strategies to meet all of their financial life needs. Mike was presented with this prestigious award from Genworth Financial Investment Services CEO Enrique M. Vasquez during the Ninth Annual National Convention Awards ceremony.

"We are delighted to recognize Representatives like Mike who are a credit to our business. We are proud that our organization has someone with Mike's experience and knowledge. His commitment to his clients is a great example to us all," said Vasquez.

"We welcome our top Representatives to this conference because it gives our other Representatives the opportunity to network with them while learning about industry best practices. This is an effective way to share information about wealth management tools and techniques," Vasquez also noted.

More than 1,100 Representatives, speakers, exhibitors, and guests attended the three-day conference, June 3–5, 2007, in Washington, D.C. Representatives selected from more than 40 sessions focusing on fee-based asset accumulation concepts, lifestyle protection, advanced retirement planning, and specialized insurance, all designed to advance the conference theme of “unlocking the wealth manager within.” Speakers included top industry professionals who provided insight on the latest industry trends, including managing retirement, providing for long term care, communicating with clients, staying current with technology, and other tools designed to better serve clients.
